DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to the amendment of August 19, 2005. In making the below rejections the examiner has considered and addressed each of the applicant's arguments.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sakai et al (USPN 6,234,769).

Art Unit: 3746

Sakai et al discloses a hybrid compressor having a compressor (200 in Fig. 3), an auxiliary drive (101,102) with a drive shaft (102b), a one way clutch (110) having an inner ring, an outer ring and a interrupting means (111, Fig. 2A and B), a clutch (304) which is selectively actuated to directly transmit the driving force of a vehicle engine to the compressor. The examiner notes that the compressor and the auxiliary drive share a common shaft.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mohrmann (USPN 6,638,027).

Mohrmann discloses a hybrid compressor having a compressor (10), an auxiliary drive (14) with a drive shaft (16), a one way clutch (32) having an inner ring, an outer ring and a interrupting means (see Fig. 2), a clutch (shown in Fig. 1 and operated by controller (24)) which is selectively actuated to directly transmit the driving force of a vehicle engine (18) to the compressor. The examiner notes that the compressor and the auxiliary drive share a common shaft.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 3 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 2 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
